The Honourable Joe Oliver
Minister of Natural Resources
Eglinton-Lawrence (Ontario)

Born in Montreal where his parents motivated him to work hard and get an education, Joe Oliver obtained both his Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Civil Law at McGill University. He was called to the Quebec Bar and later graduated with an MBA from the Harvard Graduate School of Business.

Joe Oliver was elected to the House of Commons for the first time in May 2011.

He was appointed Minister of Natural Resources on May 18, 2011.

Prior to his election to Parliament, Mr. Oliver had a career in the investment banking industry. He worked as a senior investment banker for over 20 years and knows how essential it is to have a strong, reliable plan to keep the economy strong. He began his investment banking career at Merrill Lynch, and served in senior positions at other investment dealers and as Executive Director of the Ontario Securities Commission. He was then appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of the Investment Dealers Association of Canada. He also played a prominent role as Chair of the Advisory Committee of the International Council of Securities Associations and as Chair of the Consultative Committee of the International Association of Securities Commissions.

A graduate of the Directors Education Program at the Rotman School of Management, he was also a member of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Business Valuators and sat on the board of the Canadian Securities Institute Research Foundation.

Mr. Oliver is an active member of his community and volunteers for various charities in Canada and abroad. He served as Chair of the Prostate Cancer Research Foundation of Canada for four years and continues to be an active volunteer at Mount Sinai Hospital.
